

Manhattan VA Hospital

John Civetta & Sons Inc.
Demolition and Excavation

IAR supplied all labor, material supervision, waste hauling/disposal and equipment necessary, to perform demolition and excavation of an abandoned underground boiler room. Boiler contains complete, although obsolete and un-operational, heating system components. It was found to be structurally unsound. IAR performed the demolition/excavation in order to remove hazardous working conditions for the general contractor and to facilitate intended site and building improvements.